

KEELE UNIVERSITY

A CALL TO BLACK MEN

Have you experienced childhood sexual abuse ?

My name is Yohana. I am a Keele University MSc Counselling and Psychotherapy student. I'm researching Black men's experience of childhood sexual abuse. I am looking for participants that meet the following criteria:

- Black male
- Minimum age 20
- Experience of childhood sexual abuse
- Fluent in English
- Have access to Wi-Fi and laptop for an interview to take place via video call

If you meet the above criteria and feel emotionally able to talk about your experience without causing harm to yourself, I would like to invite you to participate in this research. Your anonymity will be maintained throughout the research process. Please contact me Yohana Mindal (researcher) via e-mail.
